2. This road not having united him, he made another road from III to II marked on the rough sketch and intimated the fact to the authorities that he did it in a hurry and in anticipation of sanction. Because he appreciated that his action would go away for this unauthorised action of the applicant he was again fined Rs: 10/-.

3. The lines inscribed on the two occasions for two distinct offences have been duly paid up by the applicant together with one rupee for value of the trees.

4. The road in question begins at the 6th furlong on the 3rd mile stone on the Belur Mangalore Road and ends near the applicants house on his Survey No 99 running through another survey No: 37 of his khata and 2 Government lands, viz: Survey Nos: 37 Coffee Kharab (unassessed) and No: 38 Gomal of the Nidvale Village. The width of the road is 12 feet and 220 yards long on the Survey Nos 37 and 38.

5. The applicant having agreed to execute a Patchalika on a stamped paper binding himself to throw open the road for the free and unrestricted use of the Public &c, and the villagers having put forward no objection towards the grant of the permission applied for, the road (A E on the revised sketch marked X in blue pencil). made by the applicant on the second occasion may be confirmed and the application of 2 guntas and 78 square yards of land out of Coffee Kharab No. 37 and 4 guntas and 76 square yards of land out of Gomal No: 38 sanctioned on receipt of sanction necessary muteliffa will be attended.
